Help for Tornado Survivors

DR-4701-TN

April 2023

Individuals & Households in Cannon, Hardeman, Hardin, Haywood, Lewis, Macon, McNairy, Rutherford, Tipton and Wayne counties:

If you had damage or losses from the March 31 - April 1, 2023, storms, you may be eligible for FEMA assistance.

Types of Assistance:

Lodging Expense Reimbursement

Lodging expenses may be eligible for reimbursement if you verify occupancy in a primary residence within a designated county and verify that the primary residence is uninhabitable or inaccessible due to the disaster.

Rental Assistance for Temporary Housing

FEMA may be able to provide rent, including a security deposit, if your primary residence was made uninhabitable by the disaster. The assistance includes essential utilities such as electricity and water.

Major Repairs and Out-of-Pocket Expenses

FEMA's Individuals and Household Program is intended to meet the basic needs of your household, not to restore your home and all your personal property items to a pre-disaster condition.

- Housing Assistance covers rent and repairs to structural parts of your home.
- Other Needs Assistance covers disaster-related expenses, such as medical and dental, funeral, furniture, appliances, tools used in your occupation, educational materials, moving and storage, vehicles and generators.

Home Replacement Assistance

This assistance can help replace an owner-occupied primary residence when the residence is destroyed.
