Cannon County Honors the November Employee of the Month

Woodbury, TN– Cannon County Schools would like to congratulate the November Employee of the Month, Randi Hale, Cannon County High School Food Service manager. Principal Courtney Nichols nominated Mrs. Hale for work in making sure students and staff have a hot lunch every day. Mr. Nichols states, “Randi is in her first year as food service manager at CCHS. She has truly transformed the dining experience at our school, profoundly impacting the variety of options available to students. Under her leadership, the menu has been revamped to include healthier choices, incorporating a wider range of flavors and dietary preferences. Her dedication to improving food quality is evident in every dish served, and her ability to listen to student and staff feedback has fostered a positive and inclusive dining culture. Thanks to her efforts, the cafeteria has become a place where students enjoy.” Mrs. Jennifer Insell, Food Service Director, states, “Mrs. Randi Hale is truly a blessing to all Cannon County High School students and the entire community. Randi has developed new menu items and has built relationships with all the students at CCHS. She has excelled in her first year in this leadership position, and I am so proud of her.”

District and School Administrators can nominate Cannon County Employees of the Month each month for exceptional work leading to student success.
