Press Release: Cannon County DECA Achieves Gold Star Recertification for School-Based Enterprises-The PawPrint and The Hub

WOODBURY— Cannon County High School DECA is excited to announce that The PawPrint (Print Shop) and The Hub (Coffee Shop) have both earned the Gold Star Recertification, a prestigious honor from DECA recognizing excellence in student-run enterprises.

This recertification celebrates the hard work and leadership of students Katie Fann, Annsley Holt, and Annalee Hibdon, who have been integral in ensuring the continued success of these school-based businesses. The PawPrint and The Hub offer real-world learning experiences where students gain valuable skills in marketing, finance, hospitality, and management.

These student-run businesses provide essential services to the school community, including custom printing, spirit wear, and delicious coffee, tea, and lemonade, while helping students build important leadership and teamwork skills. The Gold Star Recertification reflects their dedication and the lasting impact of Cannon County's DECA program.

Crystal Kennedy, CTE Director, said, "We are so proud of our school-based enterprise students that operate multiple businesses on the Cannon County High School campus. Achievement of the DECA Gold Star Recognition is a testament to the hard work they put into keeping these businesses operational with the highest level of work ethic and dedication.
