Cannon County Schools Honors the March Good Citizen of the Month Award Winner

Woodbury, TN– Cannon County Schools would like to congratulate the March Good Citizen of the Month Award winner, Alex Reed, a 12th-grade student from Cannon County High School. Alex was nominated by his principal, Mr. Courtney Nichols. Mr. Nichols states, “Alex is a very responsible and kind student who goes above and beyond in his work. Alex has been one of the leaders of our growing video production program. He has been a key person in the development of our morning announcements and podcasts. He coordinates with technology and administration to help stream events such as sports games, assemblies, and graduation ceremonies. Alex is friendly, professional, and helpful in all he does. We are very proud of Alex and his contributions to Cannon County High School.”

Teachers and administrators can nominate students for the Good Citizen Award each month. A drawing is then held each month to select the winner. Each month, the winning student can lead the pledge of allegiance at the beginning of each board meeting.
