Crystal Hill Named Cannon County Elementary School Assistant Principal

WOODBURY –Woodbury-Mrs. Julie Vincent, Director of Schools for Cannon County, is pleased to announce Ms. Crystal Hill as the new Cannon County Elementary School Assistant Principal beginning the 2025-2026 school year.

Ms. Hill brings over 23 years of experience in education, serving as a dedicated teacher and leader in the Cannon County School System. She has also held a teaching position with Woodbury Grammar School/ Cannon Elementary School throughout her 24 years. Throughout her career, she has taken on leadership roles such as ESP Site Coordinator, District PBS Team Member, and Tennessee State Department Instructional Math Coach. Her passion for supporting students, teachers, and families shines through in all that she does. In her new role as Assistant Principal, Ms. Hill is eager to support instructional leadership, foster a positive school culture, and help ensure every student has the opportunity to succeed.

Mrs. Julie Vincent stated, “We are so excited to have Ms. Hill to be taking over the reins as the Assistant Principal at Cannon County Elementary. We were waiting for some documentation to come in before we could officially announce her new role and I am so pleased to now be able to share this announcement. Ms. Hill brings many strong qualities to this role from her varied educational experiences. I am very much looking forward to seeing this new administrative team at CCES in action! Congratulations, Ms. Hill!”
